

Please don't let them change our law. I finally can go home after a long day at work and not have to jump up 20-50 times a night just to answer a sales or telemarket call. If you revoke our law I think alot of people me included will just disconnect our telephones!!!! Let us keep our law the way it is.